Features:

Electronic pest repellent with ultrasound control and flame retardant body is environmentally friendly and has a high capacity while remaining completely safe for you, your children, and pets. This device allows you to rid your yard, garden or outdoor area of ??parasites in a humane way and without the use of toxic chemicals. With the Cenocco CC-6062 pest alarm, you can drive rats, mice, cockroaches, spiders, beetles, flies and other insects from home. The Cenocco CC-6062 suppressor emits electromagnetic pulses and ultrasound and works directly on the spot where mice and spiders, beetles and other insects live and multiply. No chemicals should be used, but only ultrasounds and electromagnetic pulses that irritate rodents and insects and thus cause the exit of the house! Very Easy to Install - just plug in. No need to refill You can drive out bugs, mice, cockroaches, ants, and spiders without harming children or animals by using advanced ultrasonic and electromatic defenses that pass through your walls, furniture, and ceiling. With a humane treatment, you can get rid of rats as well as flying and crawling insect infestations. You don't have to use chemicals to kill mositoes and then clean up their remains. Our pest deterrent device helps purify the air by releasing negative ions into it, making it safer to breathe and allowing you to sleep better all night. In addition, our pest control comes with a mini light that doubles as a night light. The device's modern technological development, in collaboration with leading engineers, provides effective, quick, and humane pest removal without causing harm to your family.
